

For Immediate Release: October 10, 2016

Boulder Housing Partners Honors Three Partners with Awards

The Boulder Housing Partners (BHP) Partnership Awards program recognizes the efforts of individuals, businesses, corporate partners, and non-profit and governmental agencies for their support of BHP and its mission. The October 2016 award winners in the categories of Non-profit Partners, Business Partners and Volunteer Partners who make a difference are:

Non-Profit Partner: St. Benedict Health and Healing Ministry

Every other month nurses from St. Benedict Health and Healing Ministry host free health clinics at Canyon Pointe, a community for seniors and people with disabilities. Thanks to their swift and decisive action to improve the health of our residents, the nurses have recently identified two residents who were in need of immediate medical attention. Additionally, the Executive Director, Rev. Sally Bowersox, has agreed to begin a free monthly health clinic at Walnut Place, which is another community for seniors and people with disabilities.

Volunteer Partner: Ingrid Castro-Campos

Ingrid Castro-Campos has demonstrated leadership within her neighborhood and in the greater Boulder community in a variety of ways. Whether she is volunteering her time to teach Spanish to a BHP staff member, donating books for our summer book exchange, or helping the Red Oak Park Service Coordinator find a volunteer yoga instructor to teach yoga classes, she is consistently mindful and considerate of her fellow neighbors and makes sure to welcome each and every one to Red Oak Park. BHP is thankful to have her as both a neighbor and a community leader.

Volunteer Partner: Nan Jenner Bryant

As a volunteer, the two support groups Nan Jenner Bryant hosts per month at High Mar have made a difference in the lives of our residents and have been well-received by each participant. She has also been a great resource for other residents when a community member recently passed away. High Mar is fortunate to have such a wonderful volunteer with group experience who gives her time and knowledge to BHP.